

Just leave XM alone. The NAB is just concerned with loosing its drive time audience. Maybe if they didn't have so many auto sales commercials people would be more inclined to stay with local radio then go to a commercial free format.